VS

CASE NO. 5:04cv165-RH/WCS

OFFICER McDONALD, et al.

Defendants

RESPONSE TO THIS COURT'S JANUARY 17, 2007 ORDER

The plaintiff, pro se, files this response to this court's January 17, 2007 order. In support thereof the plaintiff states the following:

FACTS

The plaintiff previously filed his motion for discovery in accordance to this court's instructions. This court granted the motion for discovery and set a deadline for compliance with set deadline. The plaintiff has fully complied with the defendants request's for discovery. The defendants allowed the plaintiff to hear the audio tapes concerning the inspector general's investigation. They allowed the plaintiff to review his medical file. They also sent the petitioner a copy of the inmate roster for said date. Aside from that they have not supplied the plaintiff with any transcripts or paperwork concerning any other discovery requests made by the plaintiff in regards to his motion for discovery. Therefore the defendants have not fully complied with this court's order or the plaintiff's discovery requests and this cause is not ready to proceed to pretrial stages.

The plaintiff seeks for this court to order the defendants to expeditiously comply with all of the plaintiff's requests for evidence as they are essential for the plaintiff's preparation for trial.

Respectfully submitted,

TK 120
